FVKG'S PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Hello Fellow Knitters,

Looking out the window today, I noticed all the wonderful colors of Fall. Trees turning red, yellow, orange and brown. Mums in a wide range of colors. The wind is blowing and people are already wearing coats and hats to stay warm. Makes me start to think about all the knitting I want to do for Christmas and the time I have left to get it all done.

This month is our annual Guild Retreat to the Stronghold in Oregon, Illinois. The committee has been working hard all summer to get everything ready for our fun get away. I have been told that there are only a few rooms left to fill so if you are interested in going, please contact Gretl Kramer.

Don't forget about the "Brown Bag Hat Surprise Exchange" that will start this month. If you would like to participate, select a yarn for your hat, put it into a brown paper bag along with a slip of paper with your name. If you would like the hat to be for a man, woman or child, please include this on the slip of paper. Bags will be turned in at the start of the October meeting and you will pick up a bag to take home after the meeting. Then at the Holiday Party in December, you will bring the bag with the finished hat and return it to the owner.

Thank you to Jen Unger Kroc for her presentation about TKGGA and the Master Knitter Program. After hearing about the program, I hope that some of our members will take advantage of it and progress to become Master Knitters.

Well, time for some hot apple cider, a warm blanket and my knitting. Hope to see all of you at the next meeting.

Your Fellow Knitter,

---Sandy Andrews

SOCKTOBERFEST IN OCTOBER AT THE FOX VALLEY KNITTERS' GUILD

In response to many requests on the members' survey taken last spring, the October meeting of the Fox Valley Knitters' Guild will be all about techniques for socks. And as you knitters know, many "sock techniques" can be transferred to all kinds of other projects, and we hope there will something new for everyone.

The format for the program will be like last year's techniques fair. There will be stations set up for demonstrations, and if you wish, you'll be able to try the techniques. Techniques being demonstrated include different cast-ons, even one for toe-up socks, 1 and 2 socks on 1 and 2 circular needles, Kitchener stitch, colorful socks and more.

If you want to do more than just watch, bring these supplies and try out what you'll see:

- some sport or worsted weight yarns, 1 or more colors
- a set of double pointed needles appropriate for your yarn size
- 2 circular needles of approximately the same size, 32" or longer
- a yarn sewing up needle

If you would like to perfect your Kitchener stitch, do the following homework: cast on 20 stitches on a double pointed needle and knit 4 or 5 rows in stockinette stitch. Leave the knitting on the needle with a long tail, and be sure to bring a sewing up needle.

The vendor for our meeting will be our own Sophie's Toes yarn dyer extraordinaire, Emily Parson. Emily will bring a collection of her fingering weight yarns that are great for socks, of course, but also wonderful for shawls, hats, scarves, gloves, blankets, and even sweaters. Emily will also bring her worsted weight lovely yarns. I can't wait to see what's new in her beautiful line.

---Gretl Kramer

REMINDER ABOUT NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER

The November meeting presentation will be on natural dyeing. Our speaker, Stefania Isaacson, will be here with information on natural dye sources, dyeing techniques and lots of sample to look at. It is sure to be an inspirational evening.

And to take it further and let us give natural dyeing a try, Stefania is offering us a 6 hour hands-on dye workshop on Saturday, December 11 at the Fine Line Dye Studio. The fee for her workshop is $70 as long as we have about 15 participants. Please email Gretl gkramer@foxvalley.net or ask at the Guild meeting if you have any questions. We will need a headcount shortly after the October meeting.

---Gretl Kramer

BROWN BAG SECRET HAT PROJECT

Let me try to unravel the confusion:

Have you ever been a Secret Santa? Here's a Knitter's Secret Santa project for you! You can give a gift and receive one, too.

1. Pick some yarn that might make a nice hat, put it in a bag, put your name in the bag and bring it to the October meeting. Don't write anything on the outside of the bag, please. You can even staple the bag shut if you like.
2. If you bring a bag, you'll take home someone else's bag.
3. You will decide on a pattern for the hat yarn you bring home and will knit it. Then you'll bring it, finished and still in the bag, to the December meeting.
4. At the December meeting, you will get your bag back with a completed hat that will be a surprise gift to you. (You will know the yarn ahead of time, of course, because you picked it out, but the pattern will be a surprise because your Secret Santa Knitter will have picked that out.)
5. Participation is voluntary! Other guilds have done brown bag exchanges like this, but I think this is our first time. Let's see how it goes.

I will bring more brown paper bags to the October meeting, so if you don't have one yet, just bring your yarn wrapped up in something and get a bag from me there at the meeting. Email me if you have any questions: gkramer@foxvalley.net

Thanks!

---Gretl Kramer
